

NCAIP 73rd Annual Convention

Saturday October 25, 2014

Awards Dinner-Winner Circle

President Plott welcomed everyone to the Awards Dinner.

President Plott called on Sharyn Clark, NCAIP Secretary to give the invocation.

After the invocation was given, dinner followed.

After dinner, President Plott began her presentation of the Awards.

She first honored those who have earned the designation of Certified Professional Insurance Woman/Man or as its new title CIIP- Certified Insurance Industry Professional. There were 45 CPIW's registered for this convention. President Plott filled in for Roberta Clodfelter to recognize our newest CIIP- Angie McClure.

President Plott also recognized the DAE's.

Next President Plott began announcing the award winners:

The NCAIP Excellence Award has 3 Categories:

Category A, 10 member and under – Piedmont Insurance Association

Category B, 11-to 25 – no submission

Category C, Over 25 – Charlotte Insurance Association

President Plott than gave out the individual awards.

The NCAIP Rookie of the Year was Samantha Lauck from the Greensboro Association; The Insurance Professional of the year was Angie McClure from Piedmont; and the Individual Excellence Award was given to Ann Suriani also from the Greensboro Association

CWC was awarded to Jacque Clark-Gatto from the Charlotte Association

Joetta McMillan from the Durham Association won the First Timers Prize, free registration to next year's convention.

President Plott then called for any announcements; there being none, she thanked everyone and invited them to enjoy the music and the rest of their evening.
